Criminal No. CR 2-83-01 [Filed June 8, 1983]

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

JAMES C. LANE, JR. DENNIS R. LANE

The Grand Jury Charges:

A. Introduction

- 1. Beginning on or about January 1, 1979, and continuing thereafter until on or about November 1, 1979, in the Amarillo Division of the Northern District of Texas, and elsewhere, the defendant, JAMES C. LANE, JR. knowingly devised and intended to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud and obtain money from Transamerica Insurance Group by means of false and fraudulent representations, well knowing at the time that such representations would be and were false and fraudulent when made.
- 2. At all material times herein, Transamerica Insurance Group was in the business of issuing policies of insurance generally providing for payment of claims to insured persons and entities as a result of bona fide losses incurred due to damage and destruction of insured property by fire.

THE COURT:

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Jury, you've been hearing some evidence concerning a restaurant called El Toro. Now, you are instructed that you'll not consider the evidence with regard to El Toro when you consider the charges against Dennis A. Lane ... is it Dennis A. or Dennis R.?

MR. BROWN: Dennis R., Your Honor.

THE COURT: You'll not consider that evidence in [96] considering the changes against Dennis R. Lane.

[984]

Now, as you know, there are two Defendants on trial here: James C. Lane, Jr., and Dennis R. Lane.

[985] They are being tried together because they are both charged in Counts 2 through 5 of the indictment.

Nevertheless, each Defendant is entitled to have his case decided just on the evidence which applies to him.

Some of the evidence in this case was limited to one of the Defendants and can not be considered in the case of the other.

The testimony that you heard concerning a fire at El Toro may not be considered as any evidence of the guilt of the Defendant, Dennis R. Lane.

You may not consider it in any way when you are deciding whether the Government has proved, beyond a reasonable doubt, that the Defendant Dennis R. Lane, committed the crimes charged in Counts 2 through 6 of the indictment.

Now, if the Government fails to prove any one of the necessary elements of any count, as to any Defendant charged in that count, beyond a reasonable doubt, then you should acquit that Defendant as to that count and find him not guilty as to that count.

[964] Now, the Defendants are charged in Counts 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the indictment with having violated Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341 and 2. Section 1341 of Title 18,

United States Code, provided in its essential part that: Whoever, having devised or intending to devise any scheme or artifice to defraud, or for obtaining money or property by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises ... for the purpose of executing such scheme or [965] artifice or attempting to do so, places in any post office or authorized depository for mail matter, any matter or thing whatever to be sent or delivered by the Post Office Department shall be guilty of an offense against the laws of the United States.

Section 2 of Title 18, United States Code, reads in its essential part that (a) Whoever commits an offense against the United States or aides, abets, counsels, commands, induces or procures its commission, is punishable as a principal.

(b) Whoever wilfully causes an act to be done which if directly performed by him or another would be an offense against the United States, is punishable as a principal.

Now, in reading this, it said the Defendants are charged in Counts 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the indictment. Actually, of course, Dennis R. Lane is not charged in Count 1 of the indictment. Both Defendants are charged in Counts 2, 3 and 4 of the indictment.

Now, as to Counts 1, 2, 3 and 4 in the indictment, it is necessary that the Government prove from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that (1) The Defendants wilfully and knowingly devised a scheme or artifice to defraud, or for the obtaining of money or property by means of false pretenses, representations, [966] or promises, and (2) The Defendants used the United States Postal Service by mailing, or causing to be mailed, some matter or thing for the purpose of executing the scheme to defraud.

The words "scheme" and "artifice" include any plan or course of action intended to deceive others, and to obtain, by false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises, money or property from persons so deceived.

Now, a statement or representation is "false" or "fraudulent" within the meaning of this statute if it relates to a material fact and is known to be untrue or is made with reckless indifference as to the truth or falsity, and is made or caused to be made with intent to defraud. Now, a statement or representation may also be "false" or "fraudulent" when it constitutes a half truth, or effectively conceals a material fact, with intent to defraud.

Now, a "material fact" is a fact that would be important to a reasonable person in deciding whether to engage or not to engage in a particular transaction.

Now, to act with "intent to defraud" means to act knowingly and with the specific intent to deceive, ordinarily for the purpose of causing some financial [967] loss to another or bringing about some financial gain to one's self.

It is not necessary that the Government prove all of the details alleged in the purpose of the scheme; or that the material mailed was itself false or fraudulent; or that the alleged scheme actually succeeded in defrauding anyone; or that the use of the mail was intended as the specific or exclusive means of accomplishing the alleged fraud.

What must be proved beyond a reasonable doubt is that the accused knowingly and wilfully devised or intended to devise a scheme to defraud substantially the same as the one alleged in the indictment; and that the use of the United States mails was closely related to the scheme in that the accused either mailed something or caused it to be mailed in an attempt to execute or carry out the scheme.

Now, to "cause" the mails to be used is to do an act with knowledge that the use of the mails will follow in the ordinary course of the business or where such use can reasonably be foreseen.

Now, each separate use of the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud constitutes a separate offense.

Now, to use the mail can not be for the purpose of executing such scheme as alleged in the indictment, [968] if the alleged scheme in its entirety was completed prior to the mailing alleged in the indictment.

Therefore, if you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the Defendants devised and intended to devise a scheme or artifice to defraud, or to obtain money by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations or promises, as alleged in the indictment, but if you further find from a preponderance of the evidence, that the alleged scheme in its entirety had been completed prior to the alleged mailing, so that the use of the mail, if any, by the Defendants, was not for the purpose of executing the scheme, or if this evidence causes you to have a reasonable doubt, you shall acquit the Defendants, and say by your virdict, "not guilty."

Now, however, mailings made to promote the scheme or which relate to the acceptance of the proceeds of the scheme or which facilitate concealment of the scheme are mailings in furtherance of the scheme.
